UNITED STATES TROOPS WILL GUARD BORDER

TO PRESERVE THE NEUTRALITY
LAWS—REPORTS OF OUT-BREAKS IN JAUEREZ AND PUEBLO CONFIRMED.

8000 RIFLES SMUGGLED

Into Mexico From Texas Towns—Report That General Reyes Has Returned to the Republic Causes Anxiety—Unrest Along the Border.

(Herald Special.)
Washington, D. C., Nov. 21.—Although the Mexican border is strongly guarded to prevent any serious trouble by the Mexican revolutionists from this country, the state department will ask the war department to order troops to the border to preserve the neutrality laws. It is learned here today that Mexico has an army of 30,000, which has been preparing for war for years. Ambassador Wilson, in a dispatch today, confirms reports of outbreaks in both Juarez and Pueblo. Consul Ellsworth says there is unrest along the border.

Eight Thousand Rifles Smuggled.

(Herald Special.)
El Paso, Texas, Nov. 21.—Advices say eight thousand rifles have already been smuggled into Mexico from Texas towns near here, which were paid for by Francisco Madero. A dispatch from Tepic, Mexico, declares that students are preparing for demonstrations similar to those at Guajalajara and Mexico City, which were caused by ill feeling against Americans.

Further Trouble Expected.

(Herald Special.)
Mexico, D. F., Mexico, Nov. 21.—Reports of disturbances between the troops and revolutionists have caused the belief that within ten days the country will see warfare in the field, such as sporadic outbreaks, as of the past week. A general movement is not expected, and will be suppressed in case it does come, as the government is prepared for any emergency.

Officials Worried.

(Herald Special.)
El Paso, Nov. 21.—Advices received today place the number killed in the uprising at Zacatecas and in the interior of Mexico at one hundred. Other reports unconfirmed say the list of dead will reach five hundred. Authentic information is impossible to obtain because of the censorship so rigorously maintained. The Mexican government is moving troops as rapidly as possible to all territory where a revolutionary uprising is feared.

It is reported today that General Bernardo Reyes, ex-governor of Nuevo Leon, of which Monterey is the capital, and who was at one time a member of the Diaz cabinet and head of the national army, has arrived secretly from Europe, where he had been virtually in exile. This report is worrying the officials.

WRECK NEAR KEECHI.

Traffic on the West End Tied Up For Several Hours.

Early this morning nine freight cars were derailed near Keechi, on the west end, making a nasty wreck. No one was injured. Traffic was tied up for several hours.
